

2026

THE WORLD'S PREMIER
MINERAL EXPLORATION
& MINING CONVENTION

Dear PDAC 2026 Exhibitor,

UPCOMING DATES/DEADLINES*

Jan. 14 – Extended deadline for Globe & Mail Special Report

Jan. 23 – Large/Heavy Equipment requests for approval deadline

*Refer to the Exhibitor Toolkit for more details

IN-BOOTH EVENTS

Exhibitors wishing to hold events in their booth on show days are required to submit an in-booth event application. Show management will accept request forms only from the booth representative. In-booth event applications are due no later than February 10, 2026.

Submit a request for In-Booth Events here.

The Event must follow the Terms & Conditions:

1. For in-booth events, Exhibitors are required to ensure that attendees are confined to the booth(s) interior. Standing in the aisles, intercepting those in attendance, or intruding on neighbouring booths is also prohibited. PDAC has the right to restrict or evict any Exhibitor that is a disturbance to neighbouring exhibits, creating excess noise or disruption.
2. Exhibitors wishing to hold in-booth events pre/post-show floor hours will require approval by Show Management. Special permission to access the show floor may be required.
3. Exhibitors will not be permitted to host in-booth events after 12 p.m. on the closing day of the show due to booth dismantling.
4. Disregarding the Terms and Conditions may result in the loss of priority renewal for the next Convention.

What happens if the Terms and Conditions are not met?

- Exhibitors will be given verbal and written warnings (booth infraction notices).
- Exhibitors who have previously received infractions notices will lose priority renewal for the upcoming show. Exhibitors can only apply as a new exhibitor the following year.

Show Management Approval:

Once your request has been submitted and reviewed, you will receive an email from Show Management letting you know if your request has been approved, denied or requires additional information.

PDAC 2026 PREFERRED MEDIA SUPPLIER: THE GLOBE AND MAIL

The Globe and Mail is the official national newspaper and media partner of PDAC 2026. They plan to publish a special national feature called “Investing in mining and exploration” in conjunction with PDAC, please view this link for more details.

It is strategically timed to publish on February 27th and aims to offer excellent exposure for the convention. To learn more about the topics under consideration and the opportunity to receive bonus content integrated within the feature when you book space, please reach out directly to Richard Deacon at rdeacon@globeandmail.com or Victoria Thacker at vthacker@globeandmail.com or via phone at 604-631-6636. Reach out early for this high in demand feature, space closes January 14th.

Let us know if you require any assistance as you prepare for PDAC 2026. We are here to help!
